Pepper seeins to realize that he is a privileged dog. If the family is at dinner he promenades into the dining-room and begs for cake. If no person is about, he goes upstairs, jumps on a hed and indulges in a nap. If a chair seems inviting he occupies it. If visitors are in the parior he goes in and helps entertain them. Twelve years ago a coachman who was employed by Adolphus Busch took charge of Claus Vieths's stable. He brought Pepper with him. After the coachman left the dog stayed. Having a congenial temperament and a ruminating disposition, he established friendly relations with other families of the neighborhood and soon he had many homes besides the Vieths residence. Pepper is such a favorite with the wealthy families on Lindell boulevard and such an excellent ratter, that none of them would part with him. His friends have come to love him even for his eccentricities.

The Pirst Congregational Church was organized March 14, 1852, and the first edifice was erected in 1843 by the Third Presbylerian Church, and which was used by the First Trinitarian Congregational Church from 1852 to 1856. The chapel on Locust and Tenth streets was occupied in 1855, and the basement of the second edifice was occupied four years later. The lot for the present edifice was purchased in May, 1878, and the corner stone of the present church was laid in May 1884. This church was dedicated April 8, 1885. The Reverend Doctor Post, the first pastor, was installed pastor March 14, 1852, and became pastor emeritus January 1, 1882. The Reverend Doctor Jamos G. Hyde Park Church reported that its membership had reached the 300 mark, and that its financial condidtion was never so good. Pilgrim Church reported better work than ever. Old Orchard Church stated that the church debt had been reduced $1,500, leaving only $1,000 unpaid. Comption Hill gave a description of the recent taking of the religious census of that part of the city, which showed 800 families without church connection, and ninety families where there was at least one Congregationalist. Webster Groves reported an increase of one-third in the membership of the Sundad school and thirty-eight added to the membership during the year.

Against the Middle to His Own Advantage. cisco, Found in New Orleans. An effort was made to have an appropriation included in the bill increasing the salary of the secretary of the national commission from $2,000 to $5,000. The subcommittee which had the bill unler consideration decided not to include it in the bill. It will be offered as an amendment on the floor of the Senate at the same time the postponement amendment is oriered. The argument made before the committee was that at the time of the appointment of Mr. Joseph Flory as secretary President McKinley assured bim that he would approve an increase of the salary to make it equal to that of the members of the commission. Congressmen Bartholdt and Joe had asked for Flory's appointment, and in deference to a promise made long ago they appeared be-fore the committee urging that the increase be made.—Special dispatches from Washington.

Fiory's friends are "up in the sir." After working night and day for a month, they have come to the conclusion that the zecretary of the National Commission is literally conto his job." He has succeeded in binding Bartholdt into steering an amendment for a $2,000 raise in salary.

It was said the first of the week that something of the sort was on the programme. Men who were grooming Flory would not believe it. Flory denied emphatically that he had received a telegram from Bartholdt, as was rumored among the politicians. Whether he received a telegram or not, if the amendment is tacked onto the bill postponing the World's Fair bill "the poor man's friend" will receive $2,000 a year more salary than is probable if his congressional aspirations had not taken such a flight in the Tenth District.

The men who were getting up the anti-Bartholdt campaism are still working on the programme. The absence of the chief performer has dampened their ardor. Avaliable timber seems to be lacking. It is said that Doctor Max Starkloff does not want an army commission or any other emolument which Bartholdt can secure for him and can see nothing in a campaign for himself. He has been asked to make the race, but has played shy.

Frank D. Roberts has left the State headquarters of the Republican Central Committee, and is skirmishing in the interior of Missouri. It is said that he has gone into the Sixteenth District and will try to secure more indorsements for Chairman Akins. It is claimed that, hesides E. A. Rozier, who has blossomed out as a candidate for the chairmanship, the Kerens forces will encourage men in four or five other congressional districts.

TRIBUTE TO MISSOURI MULE.

Congressman Dougherty Thrilled House With His Apostrophe.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Washington, April 17.-It is always worth going a long distance to listen to Missouri oratory, whether it flows from the eloquent lips of Champ Clark, DeArmond, Cowherd, Cochran and any of the others, but when the orator takes for his subject the irrepressible Missouri mule, the listener is thrilled with unspeakable admiration. Following is Representative Dougherty's recent apostrophe to the celebrated beast of burden, for which that State is famous: "And the fame of the Missouri mule is not circumscribed by the boundaries of this continent, for he has done cavalry and artillery service in Europe. Asia and Africa. The incident is douttless fresh in the minds of all of certain mules which once upon a time drew the artillery of the British forces in South Africa, and which, breaking away from the Britons and dragging the cannon with them, ran precipitately into the Boer ranks. Those were Missouri mules."

Then Mr. Dougherty quoted some poetry. going a long distance to listen to Missouri

Then Mr. Dougherty quoted some poetry, and concluded:
"And, sir, from such associations, even the Missouri mule, imbibe that spirit of courage and love of freedom and independence which moves even him, upon occasion, to swiftly fly to the side of any people, wherever found on this earth, who seek to light the torch of libery at the fires that glow upon the altars of our American free institutions."
